Peabody High School

Peabody, Mass.

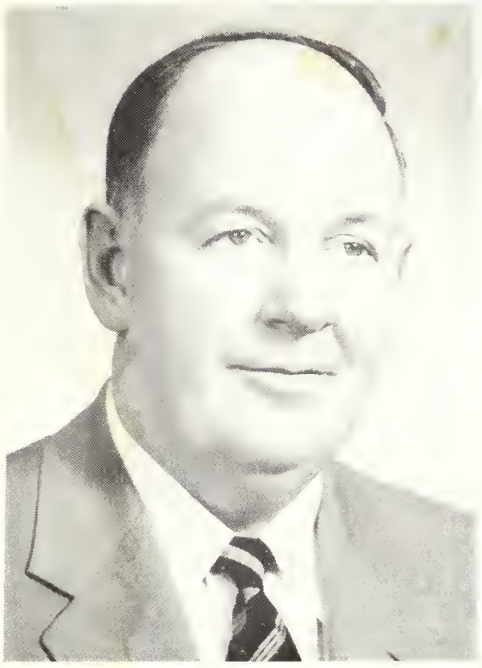
FOREWORD

As graduates we have reached an important climax in the drama of life. Four short years ago we began our high school careers; now we ring down the curtain upon an act rich with cherished memories of pleasant incidents.

The recollection of these happy moments seem vivid indeed to us now. But as we tread our varied paths to future success and happiness, we shall no doubt be confronted with new scenes, new friends and new conflicts, and the memory of the happy days which we have enjoyed at Peabody High School may tend to fade into obsecurity.

It is to aid in perpetuating these pleasant experiences of our high school life that we have recorded the spirit of a few of them in this Meta. May our efforts bring to every one of us joyful remembrances of an extremely happy phase of life, and serve as a bond holding closely together for all times the members of the class of 1956.

Dedicated to



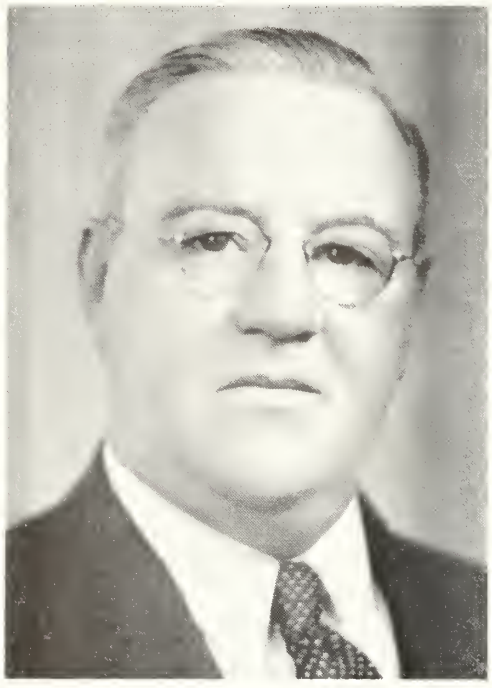
MR. ARTHUR V. JOHNSON

SOME men work in the glare of publicity, in the center of the stage; others perform quietly behind the scenes, enthusiastically and efficiently.

Mr. Johnson, Head of our English Department never turned the spotlight on himself, yet his capable ability and guidance has played a great part in the success of both our Observer and Meta.

With a keen understanding of students and a vast degree of patience, he has gained the respect and admiration of the entire school, especially that of the Senior class.

In recognition of this, and of his constant interest and effort in our behalf, we, the class of 1956, dedicate this Meta.



In Memoriam

EDWARD M. BRAWLEY

During the last weeks of our high school careers, we were deeply shocked and saddened at the sudden and untimely death of our beloved teacher and friend, Edward M. Brawley. As Head of the History Department and teacher of United States History, "Big Ed", as well as being a most outstanding teacher, was, to us, a remarkable man. He constantly amazed us with his vast knowledge of the liberal arts, and by his brilliant mind, his jocund disposition and his uncanny ability to make the classroom both interesting and profitable, he became endeared to all of us Seniors who were fortunate enough to have come under his capable guidance.

This man's versatility knew no bounds. Mr. Brawley was a graduate of Medford High School, where he was captain of the state championship football team. He was also captain of the Holy Cross College eleven and was selected by Walter Camp for his All-American football team.

Mr. Brawley, after graduating from Holy Cross College, played professional football with the late Jim Thorpe of Carlisle Indian fame. He came to Peabody in 1922, and was extremely successful as a coach of football, basketball and baseball.

We are little surprised at his prowess in athletics for it was in his nature to be a perfectionist in whatever he might undertake. This was but one of many admirable principles which he instilled in us.

Of Mr. Brawley, we can justly say, that no man could have created a more favorable impression nor could any man have been the object of more love and respect in the hearts of those with whom he came in contact — the faculty and students of Peabody High School.

With heartfelt sympathy, we extend our sincere condolences to his family, to whom we can merely say, "God has chosen. We have lost a beloved friend and benefactor whose many kindnesses and efforts in our behalf shall have an irreplaceable position in the memories of the Class of '56."

Candid Capers

We, in 101, are very fortunate in having our own "HAL WALLIS," EDDIE DULLEA, who supplied us, by means of his own miniature movie camera, with the happenings of just one crazy day in our P.H.S. homeroom.

The first person to enter the scene is DONNIE BURKE, who must get up with the roosters every morning to see if they're crowing in tune.

Hold it! Cut the film! Who's this character with her hair looking like a tossed salad? What do you know? It's JUDY CLARK. She always looks so nice, you might know she'd pick this morning to wake up late.

Start the camera again, Ed.

Oh, no! Here we go again, only this one looks as if she just got off the boat. Well, no wonder, it's our little Pilgrim, DOTTY DALY.

It's about time we began to get a little action around here. JOSIE ALBIERO is gabbing away to one of the girls something about the Hot Rod Club and its latest member, BETTY ANDERSON. She's replacing DOTTY DANFORTH who seems to have lost all interest in "hot rodders!"

Oh! Oh! Trouble is arriving in the sweet little foursome of RICHIE CAPRA, JIM COLLINS, JIMMY FORD, and CHRIS DECOULOS, who are, as usual, plotting some new way of getting GERRY CANAL'S "goat." They certainly succeeded in doing so with the tobacco. They used to satisfy their fiendish minds with finding places to hide PRISCILLA CLARKE'S coat; but, she berated them so much that they have now started on poor GERRY.

Every movie must have its romance, I suppose. But, that's easily taken care of by AUDREY BULLERWELL, GERRY CHULYK, and SANDY DOUGLAS. There's only one trouble, the male leads have already graduated. Oh well, maybe they won't mind playing opposite our handsome football players, NORMY CARON, RONNIE BROWN, and "JEEPY" BROWN.

We even have the needed bevy of beautiful girls, like "KIKI" COKOROGIANIS who was voted "Best Dressed" and BARBARA CASHMAN who was voted "Most Beautiful".

Now, that most of the gossipers are present, I guess this should begin to get more interesting. As they say in movieland, "The plot thickens." Before they can utter two words though, JOYCE CRONIN, our sneaky reporter, rushes in with the latest news flashes.

Just then, a charming young lady enters the room and nicely yells, "I'll give a discipline slip to the next person who opens his big mouth!" Who else could it be, but our own MISS COYLE (you know, the teacher who passed up a big Hollywood contract to teach us the life history of the frog.)

JOE CHAMPLAIN, our chief technical engineer, almost ruined the whole thing by tripping over the wire as he rushed to his desk to do his homework. Ha! Ha!

Back to the gossipers, who were a bit chagrined at the edict delivered by Miss Coyle, but, nonetheless, they finished hearing about the travels of JOAN DLUGOKINSKI.

JIMMY CAULFIELD and JACKIE BONA are still a little surprised at "JOCKO" AHORDINI'S sudden departure to join the "Sea Scouts."

Could it be? Yes, it's Laurel and Hardy. My mistake, it's just TEDDY BOCKNICK and GEORGE DUPUIS. By the way, I think Ted is the only homeroom treasurer who's making money on class dues. (How else does he get those flashy sport shirts?)

What's the janitor scrubbing Miss Coyle's desk for? No wonder, he's still trying to get off the ink that BOBBY BOYCE (the little dear) accidentally spilled all over the place, especially on JUDY CONNOR'S skirt. She laughed, but I wonder if her mother did? ? ?

BOBBY BLAKE and EDDIE BERKOWITZ are talking about some new college called S.M.U. I wonder what the tuition is?

Of course, we have to have some sort of background music to make this picture authentic. This is no problem to a talented group like 101. CLARICE DODD suggested, "If You Knew Suzie," as the song, and ANGELA "LIBERACE" BONFANTI offered to supply the instrumental accompanyment. Naturally, the singing will be done by our own "A.B.C. Girls," consisting of MARY ANTHONY, BARB BRONSTEIN, and RAZEL COHEN.

PRISCILLA BLAZEWICZ was chosen as sound effects man after the terrific scream she gave out at lunch the other day when a rather unwanted friend decided to share her sandwich with her.

There goes the bell and also the end of our film. It's always a good closing to say "and they lived happily ever after," so, my classmates, I hope you all live happily ever after ! !

Yours truly,

The Spirit of "56"

As graduation time draws near and our four years at P.H.S. come to a close, all the unforgettable experiences that we've shared with our classmates bring both happiness and sadness to our minds.

It seems like only yesterday that we walked into our Freshman homeroom and met our homeroom teacher and a multitude of strange faces which we had never seen before. They were to become our good friends and classmates as the year progressed. Most of us proved to be quite mischievous especially JUDY FOSS, NICK GEORGES, and JIMMY KEITH who were always giving the teacher difficult moments. GLORIA ERLICH was always looking for someone to play "tic-tac-toe" with her, but she was such a whiz at it that no one would accept her challenge.

Our Freshman year went by quickly, and before we knew it, we were Sophomores. Although we were still considered underclassmen by the Juniors and Seniors, we had an air of superiority over the little Freshmen. PAUL GARDNER came to P.H.S. this year, and after perpetual urging by Miss Sullivan, he finally brought his report card in on the last day of school although Miss Sullivan had to pay for the stamp.

JIM GERAS was looked upon as a future star football player but because of a leg injury he was unable to play. Miss Sullivan believed in a system of discipline by which any violator of the rules of the homeroom would have to enter his name in the good book and stay after school to suffer the consequences. Among the many autographers to sign the book were ELINOR EDELSTEIN and NEIL HOBEY.

Our Junior year proved to be the most exciting to date with everyone in a flurry over class rings, the Junior Prom and numerous other activities. A new member was added to our homeroom in the person of CHARLOTTE "TAFFY" FILIAULT who proved to have a charming personality and a knack of making friends easily. Mr. Carlin was always getting the 4 GOULDS, JOAN JEAN, BARBARA and LAURA mixed up. I can't imagine what confused him.

Our Junior year came and passed and soon we became full-fledged Seniors. Some of the most enjoyable events took place in our Senior homeroom where we spent many happy hours, gossiping, struggling to get unfinished homework done and listening to the good advice of our wonderful homeroom teacher, Mr. Donahue.

Supporting our football team this fall were three members of our class PAT HEENAN, CATHY GLENCROSS and FAY GIBELEY. These girls deserve a lot of credit for a job well done.

We were very privileged in having a distinguished artist in our midst. WALTER "REMBRANDT" JACKSON worked very diligently to design the cover of our Meta.

MARY EAGAN, LAURA GOULD and NATALIE GOULSTON, better known as "Les Trois Madamoiselles" bewildered the rest of the homeroom with their fluency in speaking the French language while most of us were struggling over English.

KENNY JOHNSON, 1956 golf captain, and RICHIE KAVANAUGH, Meta co-editor were constantly interested in their Physics homework. Every morning they would check their homework together with the hopes that they both would have the same answers.

FRANNY ELLIOTT and JUDY ELLISON were usually studying for Mr. Brawley's history tests while the rest of us wasted our time indulging in endless gossip.

We are proud to mention that 3 of the Senior class officers were members of our homeroom. CATHY GLENCROSS, BARBARA GREEHY and CHARLEY GEORGOULIS should be congratulated for the efficient manner in which they assumed the many responsibilities of the Senior class.

Our P.H.S. disc jockey, BOB GREGORY, kept us informed on the latest developments in the "real gone" rock and roll music. We hope that Bob will have a lot of success in his career, as a disc jockey.

We wondered why Mr. Donahue called RITA HARRIS and JUANITA HENRIQUES "The Holler Girls." Could it be that they're always talking ? ?

Members of the Baton Squad whose performances were praised by all who attended the football games this fall are BARBARA GREEHY, MARILYN FINNEGAN, JUDY FOSS, JEAN GLENN and JANE FLANAGAN.

GEORGE GERMANO, EDDIE GALENUS and RICHARD GNESS were known as the "mystery men" because they never seemed to be around when anyone was looking for them.

DESPINA and ANNA GIALOURIS usually had a lot of news about the dances which they attended every weekend. From what the girls reported, these dances seemed to be enjoyed by everyone who attended them.

Well, that's an eye witness report of the happiness in our homeroom. In closing we would like to say that our four years at P.H.S. have been the best years of our young lives. We would like to thank Mr. Donahue for his patience and perseverance during all the trials and tribulations which took place in 102.

Here is a page out of an expose magazine. What we print is more or less the truth about the nice things that have happened to us during our four years at Peabody High School.

I am sure that no one will forget the first day we entered the portals of this school as Freshman. We were frightened and we didn't know a soul. All of our grammar school friends were separated from us in different homerooms. It wasn't long, however, before we had made many new friends. Among them was MISS COYLE, our pleasant homeroom teacher in 306. Being lowly Freshmen, we found things difficult at first, but she made the homeroom bright and cheerful with her ready smile of encouragement. A good friend of everyone was our faithful guide, BOB MANEY, who knew the place like a book. KENNY MOWBRAY with his contagious smile made his presence felt immediately. We knew that he was destined for the great things which he accomplished as President of the Civics Club, President of the Junior class, and Homeroom Representative in his Senior year. We began our Sophomore year by being divided in homerooms 211 and 212, with Coach Bezemes and Mr. Francis X. keeping uncalled for tabs on the jolly group. During religious class period in 212, we would find BUTCH NEWTON anxiously helping Mr. Johnson wash the desk covers.

In 211, dependable EDDIE MEDEIROS was trying intently to win the heart of pert GRACE KIRLIS. Now he spends his spare time as a salesman of class necklaces.

The Junior year started with a bang as we excitedly participated in the Junior class elections. It seemed only shortly after that, that we were measured for our class rings. In May we enjoyed our long-awaited Junior Prom at which our own MONA RENAUD reigned as the lovely queen.

There is little doubt but that our Senior year was the most exciting. At least, we were the top brass of the school. We have had a most enjoyable year with our congenial homeroom teacher, Mr. Paul Veronese.

Able-bodied JIM McNEILLY, one of our former classmates from the South Memorial school, turned out to be one of the top ranking athletes, being co-captain of the Tanner eleven.

Three young ladies who seemed to have plenty to talk about every morning were THERESA LaBONTE, FLORENCE HILL, and SALLY MacFADDEN. FRANNIE MANNING soon entered the picture and the topic of conversation was changed to the current United States history examination.

BOB KILEY, our good-natured redhead and COOKIE KARAKOUDAS usually had a few dozen laughs before the first period began.

DOTTY LABELLE and EVA MACHIROS constantly talked about their physiology homework and that silverware that Dotty purchased.

Quiet DICK MULLARKEY had quite a time deciding between two gal friends.

Who would have suspected that our old pal, MARCIA HOULDEN would become a cheerleader in our Senior year?

Do you remember the day that SANDRA MAKARAWITZ gave a dime to the worthy cause of sending a lost donkey to India?

SPERO KESSARIS spent his time alone in our homeroom. We understood that he was constantly thinking about that girl in Salem.

The last one to enter the homeroom mornings was usually LEO LEVESQUE who made occasional trips to the second floor discipline desk for detention slips.

There were three boys in 103 who were always in close conversation. The trio was made up of JIM McNEILLY, FRANK MALIK, who was also one of our outstanding football players, and none other than our efficient Class President, ALLEN "SKIP" MacDONALD.

One of our classmates, JACK KONDRACHOOK, was in the Vocational school and had the reputation of being quite a man with an automobile.

PAT KOOSKALIS had many a rendezvous mornings with our class treasurer. It seemed that every morning DOTTY DALY would come sailing into the room to make sure that her chum, OLGA KUSHKOWSKI, had her shorthand done.

Did a girl have to be an ice skater to appeal to EDDIE McLAUGHLIN, our hockey co-captain.

That tall lanky, JOHNNY MENTUS surprised us all by his intensive studying.

How did that gal, ALTHEA MAI TRELLIS find so much to talk about

Everyone would vote for DANIEL MUISE as the quietest, nicest and most gentlemanly student in this room. And speaking of the nicest, there was SHEILA MALONE who had to be considered in any contest.

All in all, one couldn't ask for better companions than the gang in 103. May the many friendships resulting from these associations be lasting.

In this edition of the Peabody High School "Who's Who" volume, we look back upon the students and the events in which they have participated. These past four years have been filed with activity and hard work, but this has been rewarded by the lasting friendships which have been formed at Peabody High.

This homeroom has been honored by presenting the school football team with an outstanding co-captain, LOU ROUMELIOTIS. You did a wonderful job, Lou. Congratulations! Another sterling contribution to our team is TIM ROCHE, a robust and efficient tackle. Remember the mornings after a football game when you came to school and could hardly see out of your blackened eyes ? ? ?

Any election would result in the naming of JEAN MARONI as the quietest and most ladylike girl in 104, but outside the confines of that room, she's a Jekyll. Who's Andy, Jean?

The "early bird" first to arrive mornings is DON JUAN ROMO. He gets here early to read his newspaper, which is always with him. Last to arrive is MAGGIE McCAFFREY who rarely beats the hell, but invariably goes immediately to her desk for her History book. Has she a boy's picture stored in that book? MARY McCARTHY, Maggie's erstwhile companion has a particular interest in History too. Mary is also one of those expert drivers from Mr. Cronin's Driving Class, but what happened to the day after you got your license, Mary? A friend of Mary's MARIA PRATA, also is one of Mr. Cronin's students. She is getting to be an expert driver. ("Hot Rod?")

The "Three Musketeers" of the homeroom, ART PAPPATHANASI, JIMMY PAPAGEORGE, and PETER PANAGOPLOS are very fun-loving in school. Mr. Greehy, ruler of the room, tries to separate them to keep them out of trouble but they seem to stick together like glue. ART ROBERTS, one of the better-natured boys in our room is always talking and laughing. I think he gives CHRIS PAPOULEAS a little competition. Chris is always chattering with the "Three Musketeers", and Art Roberts. She really livens up the homeroom with her gay chatter and sunny smile.

SANDY PEURA, neat as a pin and cute as a button brightens up the homeroom with her cheerful smile and smart appearance. Sandy is one of the nicest dressed girls in P.H.S. POLLY PRYBOS could certainly be considered a personality-plus girl for she is quite popular in our room. She is almost as talkative as JOSEPHINE MERANDINO and BERTHA PARKER. These two girls can be seen any morning discussing the latest news before school begins. They certainly have a lot to say to each other. CAROLE PROVOST'S pep and twinkling eyes have won her lasting friendships in 104.

Our contribution to the Vocation School is RAY SNELL, who adds spirit and enthusiasm to that particular phase of our school.

We certainly expect to see SHIRLEY QUIRK'S name in lights in the near future after her talented performance in the Dramatic Guild play, "A is for Apple". Shirley is always discussing St. John's Prep. What's the attraction Shirley ? ?

A witty comment can always be expected from RONALD SHEEHAN, JOHN SOARES, or RONALD PARISEAU. These "comedians" always seem to be prepared for a joke no matter what is said. I wonder if their tremendous talent for humor could be used for constructive purposes? Nevertheless, these boys add laughter and color to the room. Speaking of humor, CURTIS SAWYER, seems to enjoy himself every morning. Why don't you let us in on the joke, Curt ? ?

JOHN O'CONNOR appears to have a little difficulty with Trig and Solid Geometry. He says those squares and rectangles all look the same to him. We're inclined to think you might be right, John.

MARCIA PYZULKA and SANDY QUINTILIANI have become a twosome in their corner. I wonder what it is they talk about in such a secret manner.

Revue practice has come along nicely and our camera sees PRISCILLA NEWTON and TINA PIRES in one of the tremendous "kick lines." These girls seem to kick with grace and ease but what are they always laughing at? It couldn't be those "crazy kicks" could it ? ?

TOMMY PERRY and MARTY NOLAN are in style with their latest haircuts. Have you noticed them lately? Marty is the quiet type but I hear he plays a pretty good game of basketball.

BETTE NEILSON, a cute and charming girl, arrives in school late every morning because she travels on that stage coach from West Peabody. But Bette likes it there.

That brings us to the close of "Who's Who" in 104, but we'll never forget those happy moments under the supervision of Mr. Greehy. Good luck to you all and may success and happiness be yours always.

As the Candid Microphone roams through the doors of 105, we find the class in a minor uproar. The president of the Tyler Handwriting Analysis Agency, the famous DR. JOHN TYLER, has performed his magic on the members of the class, and the students, as well as Mr. Gorman, seem to be enjoying it immensely. So far, his findings have been quite accurate. We checked back with his very capable and efficient secretary, NORMA ROSSI, who has been taking notes on what has been said. But Norma, with a smile and giggle as sweet as sugar, declines to show us her notes, stating that they are personal and confidential. But—because of the co-operation of 101 which had previously installed a tape recorder for unknown purposes, we have the following information: As Norma protested, we played it back and following is a summarized report on what we heard:

DANNY SULLIVAN seems to be dedicated to three things—girls, baseball, and making people laugh. That's our boy, Danny.

For ELEANOR SINGLETON, there is a bubbling personality and an ever ready supply of jokes, witticisms, thoughts for the day, and anything else that proves to be humorous.

BOB WENTWORTH is a lad who is really clever, getting his license after only one lesson from Mr. Cronin. But why is he always late for school? It it because he spends too much time trying to hide the fact that he has such beautiful blonde curls?

CARL TUSINSKI seems to go for H_2O in a malicious way. How did the broken glass, or more specifically, a broken light bulb, land outside of a 107 window? I'm sure it didn't walk there by itself, Carl ? ? ?

MARY SIKORA is a lovely maiden who tends to be a social lion, but she certainly can't help it. A winning smile and magnetic charm are two qualities that can't miss.

ERNIE TROD is a great dramatist who seems to think that girls are feeble-minded characters, for he always trys to knock some sense into them by banging their heads against the nearest wall.

MARY WALSH is the girl who just about makes it on time to school in the morning, but while sinking a basket on the basketball court, she can move like lightning.

DAVE WALKENSTEIN is a newcomer to our midst, but he certainly has made a terrific impression (100 in a Physics exam.) It has been nice knowing you Dave, but we wish it had started in '52 instead of '56.

JOAN SAROWSKY is a girl with an outstanding flair for softball. Not a minute goes by without someone coming into 105 looking for her, especially Friday, 7th period, when she quite mysteriously disappears.

RAUDNA REIN is a gal who always seems busy, and she certainly does a good job as Pagette on the third floor, second period. It's been nice knowing you, Raudna.

CHARLIE XANTHAKIS is a mischievous one—and a great teaser. An unexhaustable supply of energy probably makes him such a wonderful singer.

Ever notice a person with a twinkle in their eyes? Well, this gal, MARSHA SINGER, has it, and an ability to argue, too. A teaseable person, who is really nice to know.

Have you ever seen ANGELA REGIS not laughing? I doubt it. Peppy, vivacious, and an ardent Red Sox fan also. This girl is Miss Personality with the most explosive sense of humor.

CON THEOKAS is our tall and dependable basketball captain, who, by the way, is an awfully nice guy to know.

RAYMOND WALTERS is an easy going fellow with an unsatiable desire for crossword puzzles—he even had the non-conformists doing them. Quietly efficient, he has the right answers for everyone's problems — a quick smile.

JOHN TANKEVICH is that tall boy in the first row who is awfully hard to get to know but seems thoughtfully pleasant. It's been awfully nice having you as a classmate, John.

Did you ever see EVANGELIA SIAKALLIS in study period? She can never stop talking. I think the subject must be awfully interesting for everybody else is trying to listen.

FRED SWEENEY is an adapt person in pecuniary matters as he demonstrated hy being a capable Junior Year Treasurer. He can run, too.

FRANK SOBUTKA is a person who usually can be found in the "Shop" for he is never around the homeroom. It's been fun having you as a classmate, but we wish we saw more of you.

We interrupt this summary to tell you that GLORIA SELLIOS, BARBARA ROBACK, CARLTON UPTON, and RICHARD WIGGIN have just returned from a sight-seeing excursion of P. H. S. They never seem to be here when you want them. It seems Gloria and Barb, have been visiting friends in other parts of the building, and Carlton and Dick have been in the "Shop" working on the latest in sports cars, owned by none other than JANET SHAUB who really is "in style" with her Chartreuse Jaguar. Don't be impatient, Janet, I'm sure the boys will be done in a minute. JOE STANKEVICH drives up, a little late, but nevertheless gets here, and gives the boys a wide grin, and tells them they don't know the first thing about cars. Oh well . . . everyone to their opinion. Back to our hidden microphone and Dr. Tyler's Analyses.

ANDY TRIANTAFILLOU always has a teasing insult to throw at anyone but always fixes it with a pat on the back. I don't know what we'd do without you, Andy.

HENRY TARDIFF is our agile dancer with a flair for acrobatics. You should see him in action in the Review rehearsals.

LORRAINE VILLA has talent as well as initiative, displayed by her very capable work as "Assistant Director" of the Review. We expect to see your name in lights, Lorraine.

GLORIA WRIGHT always arrives bright and late to spur on the kids in 1st. period by her cheery waves and hello's from the corridor.

DIANE VENIOS is a very nimble roller skater and an active gum chewer, who just loves to argue.

According to Dr. Tyler's analysis, BEBE WRIGHT has a tendency to be emotional probably stemming, he adds, from the disappearance of her Poppet beads, one at a time, in Physics lab.

CLASS DIARY

FRESHMAN YEAR — 1952

September 3, 1952—This was our first day of High School. A joyous welcome was afforded the class of 1956. May our four years at Peabody High be enjoyable both educationally and socially and our hopes and dreams be fulfilled.

September 24, 1952—Congratulations were in order for the newly elected Civics Club officers. They are: President, Paul Ruelle; Vice President, Geraldine Canal; Secretary, Gertrude Delp; Freshman Treasurers, Mary Walsh and Richard Mullarkey and Sophomore Treasurer, Frances Manning.

October 24, 1952—The Civics Club sponsored its first dance of the year in which the whole school turned out to make it a social and financial success. What a time we had!

February 20, 1953—The Civics Club made a night of it as one-hundred and thirty members of the Freshman and Sophomore classes attended an ice skating party at the North Shore Sports Center in Lynn. As everyone started home, tired but happy, the question most asked was "How many times did you fall?"

June 2, 1953—Sunburns and blisters told the story as we trotted home late that night after a wonderful time at Canobie Lake.

une 19, 1953—We went home singing "No more pencils, no more books," as school let out for our summer vacation. We'll come back in September full of vim, vigor and vitality in preparation for the wonderful years ahead of us.

September 10, 1953—Well, this morning the calendar told us it was the first day of school and so back we came. It seemed wonderful to see all our friends again. We are no longer lowly Freshmen!

September 29, 1953—The Civics Club once again selected their officers for the coming year. The able and lucky members of the Freshman and Sophomore classes who came out on top were: President Kenneth Mowbray; Vice President, Paul Galaris; Secretary, Joyce Cronin; Sophomore Treasurer, Barbara Roback.

November 13, 1953—Tonight the underclassmen took over the auditorium as we sponsored our first Civics Club dance. The Rios Orchestra provided the music and a grand time was had by all who attended.

June 4, 1954—Today was Outing Day, a large number of members of the Civics Club, Dramatic Club, Glee Club and other social organizations turned out for a day of fun and frolic at Nantasket. Although we didn't quite make Nantasket because of the heavy fog we had a wonderful time on Queen Bells and at Revere Beach.

June 25, 1954—School is out! Examinations are over, marks are in. And so, 1953-1954 a most enjoyable year passes into history.

JUNIOR YEAR — 1954

September 8, 1954—Yes, the day has arrived when we must again return to school. It is, however, wonderful to see our friends from whom we have been separated during the summer. We are now upper classmen!

September 22, 1954—Final elections of our Junior class officers were held. Suspense and anxiety reigned until the votes were tabulated and the results were posted. They are: President, Kenneth Mowbray; Vice President, Catherine Glencross; Secretary, Joyce Cronin; Treasurer, Fred Sweeney. Homeroom representatives: 108, Mary Anthony; 109, Charles Georgoulis; 110, Robert Kiley; 201, Arthur Pappathanasi; 203, Ronald Sheehan; 205, Richard Wiggin.

November 5, 1954—The Junior Class presented its first social of the year. Music was provided by the Yachtsmen, and, believe me, we all had a wonderful time.

December 11, 1954 We realize we're getting old as we're measured for class rings.

February 16, 1955—With James Ford acting as master of ceremony and Angelia Regis, Priscilla Clark and James Pappageorge as speakers, our annual Washington-Lincoln-Peabody assembly was very successful. The girls of the Glee Club favored us with a beautiful arrangement of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

April 18, 1955 The recipients of the George Peabody medal for excellence were announced at the assembly held in its honor. Who will be the fortunate ones in 1956?

May 20, 1955 The night of nights for the Junior Class – the Junior Prom. Music was provided by Glenn Alan's Orchestra and our beautiful queen was Mona Renaud. Needless to say it was so very wonderful and successful prom.

June 8, 1955 The various clubs, were off for a day's amusement at Nantasket and Canobie Lake. We all had a real "crazy" time and returned home rather weary after a wonderful day.

June 22, 1955—Once again another year comes to a close and we'll come back in September looking forward to our final and most exciting year.

SENIOR YEAR — 1955

September 21, 1955 First day of school. We the class of '56 have reached the final and most important year of our High School education. Lordly Seniors are we, now. We have worked diligently, obediently, and enthusiastically in the program set before us by our leaders. We have had our share of successes and tragedies, of victories and defeats, of joys and disappointments and having gone this far we are determined to reach those goals which we set for ourselves in our Freshman Year.

November 4, 1955—The annual Salem-Peabody football assembly was held today with Mr. Barry presiding. It was one of the finest and most spirited assemblies held in many years. "Lengthy orations" were presented by Co-captains Roumeliotis and McNeilly.

November 9, 1955—One of the most enjoyable assemblies of the year was presented by the Observer Staff who offered a humorous skit on the $64,000 question. The M.C. was Max Elser. Talks were given by Fay Gibeley, Advertising Manager; Elinor Edelstein, Circulation Manager; and Co-Editors, Mary Walsh and Priscilla Clarke. Dan Sullivan and Bob Meaney had everyone in the aisles.

December 2, 1955 The ever popular Ken Mowbray was chosen by the Student body to represent Peabody High School on Student Government Day which is to be held in March.

December 9, 1955—Pretty girls, soft music and beautiful gowns presented a perfect atmosphere for our first Senior formal held on December ninth. While admiring our queen, Sally Freedman, attended by her gracious court, we danced the evening away to the rhythmic music of Lou Riordan's Orchestra.

December 12, 1955—The announcement that the Seniors would be measured for caps and gowns makes us realize that we will be soon receiving our diplomas and arriving at an end of four enjoyable years.

December 16, 1955—"A is for Apple", a three act comedy was presented by the Dramatic Guild under the able direction of Mr. D. Edward Gorman before a large and enthusiastic audience. It was a fast moving story and filled with excitement.

January 24, 1956—Dorothy Daly was selected by her fellow classmates and the faculty of Peabody High School as the "Good Citizenship Pilgrim of 1955."

February 8, 1956—Once again the school was jumping as the crowd at the Vocational Dance was "rocking and rolling" to the records of Ken Malden.

March 15, 1956—The Civics Club presented a unique assembly in the person of Charles E. King, a truly magnificent singer and song leader. Mr. King sang without accompaniment the spirituals and working songs of the Negro. His method of teaching new songs and part time songs to his audience was an unusual accomplishment. It was an excellent performance and something new in musical programs.

April 13, 1956—A truly educational program in the modern miracles of science entitled "On the Beam" was presented by Glen Morris who showed the student body the progress of science in aviation, guided missiles and radiation. Although some effects of the program may have looked like magic, there was no trickery; because the truth in science can be more fascinating than trickery.

May 10, 1956—The Peabody High School Revue was presented by the Senior Class with the aid of many friendly underclassmen. The show was ably directed by Lou Rodrique. We will never forget those wonderful rehearsals and exciting moments in preparation for the show.

May 29, 1956—The most impressive and serious of all our assemblies, impressive, because of the manner in which the departed are remembered; serious, because of the thought that it was to be our last assembly at Peabody High School.

June ' 1956—Our Banquet. Enjoy it while you may, for it is our last opportunity to dine together as a group until our first reunion.

June 10, 1956—Our Graduation Day which was the fullfil[illegible] ment of one of our goals arrives. May we be worthy [illegible] the trust, the confidence and the hope which our parents, the administrators of our school system and our principals and teachers have placed on us. For many of us our High School education has been a preparation for further learning; for others it means the completion of their formal education. May our future be as enjoyable as our days at Peabody High School.

June ' 1956—Our Reception. Au Revoir, classmates, and may the friendships which were formed at Peabody High School be lasting and permanent and may our hopes and dreams of the future be fulfilled. Don't fail to attend that first reunion.

Good evening ladies and gentlemen. This is commentator, ED DULLEA, coming to you tonight from the opening of the fabulously beautiful EL ROMO Hotel where we are pleased to bring you the festivities of the 15th reunion of the Class of "56". The alumni and guests are just arriving. The very important Peabody banker, CHARLES GEORGOULIS has just stepped out of his limousine with the lovely model, MARY SIKORA, on his arm. What a charming dress! The white taffeta sheath she is wearing was designed by the famous West coast fashion designer, AGNES COKOROGIANIS, and her hair was done by stylist, JOSEPHINE ALBIERO. Coming right up behind them I see three Navy lieutenants, JOHN AHORDINI, RICHARD GAGNON, and ACHILLES XERRAS. They must have received special leave for this gala occasion.

I can hear the beat of the drums and music in the main ballroom as DAVE GUMINA and his orchestra, featuring CARL TUSINSKI on trumpet, play for the whirling dancers. Let's move inside now and join the merriment. Here in the lobby the fragrance of the flowers donated by SALLY McFADDEN'S Petal & Bud Shoppe, lends a festive air to the occasion.

Here's someone who looks familiar. Pardon me, sir, you look very much like DAN SULLIVAN of the Red Sox. Would you mind telling me your name.

"Dan Sullivan".

"Oh!" Tell me then what do you think of the Red Sox's chances this year?

"Thank you, sir."

Ah I see the guests are just being seated and are awaiting the invocation by Reverend JOHN MENTUS. John is now pastor of the Hill Street Baptist Church in Boston, where his organist and youth director is none other than GERRY CHULYK.

"Isn't this wonderful, Barb? I haven't seen the old gang for years. Tell me, you must know what they are all doing now. After all, you're teaching in Peabody."

"It's hard to keep up with everyone now, Skip but you must remember MARILYN FINNEGAN. She and I are still together teaching at the new Wallis School. FRANNY ELLIOTT resigned just recently to get married, and JANE FLANAGAN has taken a job as governess of Governor ERNIE TROD'S children."

"Oh, really. What ever happened to DOT DALY? She also planned a career as a teacher if I remember correctly."

"Why didn't you know? She is head of the Commercial Department at the new high school, and speaking of Peabody High, did you hear who the new principal is? BOB KILEY! He has abolished all exams and has instituted a three hour day at the insistence of school secretaries, BARB KAROKOUDAS and MARGARET McCAFFERY."

"Gee, it does seem like old times again, and boy is this food good! Our own CHARLOTTE FILIAULT runs the best catering service in the state. Don't you agree?"

This is your commentator again. Let's travel across the room to table #3. I think I see some excitement over there. Oh, yes. ART PAPATHANASI seems to have indigestion from talking and eating at the same time and is making quite a fuss about it. But Dr. GEORGE DUPUIS and his nurses MARY McCARTHY and CATHY GLENCROSS seem to be getting the situation well in hand. They gave him two Tums for his tummy and champagne to wash it down with. Yes, he seems quite satisfied!

The famous singers BETTY ANDERSON and BEBE WRIGHT have just entered the room and an enthusiastic burst of applause is given them. BETTY as you know is now appearing on WPHS-TV in NYC sponsored by the "Stickum-Up Glue Co. owned and operated by PETER PANAGOPOLOUS and RONALD PARISEAU. Bebe has stopped on her personal appearance tour to be here tonight, and her manager JAMES KEITH is quite pleased.

Other celebrities here tonight are KEN JOHNSON, winner of the National Open and FRED SWEENEY, first successful runner of the 2 minute mile! Politicians who have found time to honor us tonight are Councillors SPERO KESSARIS and CHRIST DECOULOS. Also here are City

While we're waiting for the after dinner program let's see what else is going on. NICK GEORGES is trying to sell NEIL HOBEY a partnership in his grocery business but Neil doesn't think it's such a good idea. Saleselerks DESPINA GIALOURIS and ALTHEA MAISTRELLIS wouldn't let him keep his mind on his work.

Across the room, SANDRA PEURA, BETTE NEILSON, and SHIRLEY QUIRK, newlyweds, are having quite a discussion on "How to Handle Husbands", JOSEPHINE MERANDINO, MARCIA PYZLUKA, and JOAN REYNOLDS are trying to give them helpful hints on "Keeping Hubby Happy".

Sitting next to them, JANET SHAUB, wealthy socialite, is telling USO entertainers BARB ROBACK and SANDY MAKAROWITZ about her recent Florida vacation where she met LOU ROUMELIOTIS, professional football player for the Pasadena Pros. Lou was visiting the famous Coral Gables Hotel as a guest of its owners POLLY PRYBOS and JOAN SAROWSKY.

ANDY TRIANTAFILLOU and GLORIA ERLICH are proving to be the life of the party as they seem to be keeping Table #2 in an uproar. But maybe it's because BOB MANEY, star of radio and T.V., has just eaten the flower decorations instead of his dinner. Quite a discussion is taking place between NORM CARON and his wife, the former JUDY FOSS as they argue over whether to leave now and relieve their babysitter ESTELLE MANOS, or whether to stay and try to learn a new South African dance demonstrated by MME. FAY GIBELEY, recent graduate of the Hindustan branch of ELEANOR SINGLETON'S Dance Studio.

It looks as if the after dinner speeches are about to be made. Let's listen.

"Ladies and gentlemen. It is now my pleasure to present the reknowned scientist JOHN TYLER, who has just perfected a chemical which would purify Peabody air."

"Thank you. As I look into your familiar faces, I am touched by the altruism of our noted benefactor, RICHARD KAVANAUGH for financing this project. I shall make no harangue this evening, but only want to wish you good luck from myself and my fellow associates at the laboratory, PRISCILLA CLARKE, JUDY ELLISON and WALTER JACKSON."

"Next I would like to present to you, Mr. JOSEPH CHAMPLAIN part owner of the "Champnala Shack" in NYC where there appears nightly BARBARA "Bubbles" BRONSTEIN with her dance group of CAROL PRAMBERG and CAROLE SORMUNEN.

"Good evening! I intended to bring along co-owner GERY CANAL but she is presently training our new hat-check girl DIANE VENIOS in the art of "wolf control". But she sends her regrets and wishes us luck."

Now Mr. FRANK MALIK, president of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to "Pigskin Punters", will acknowledge telegrams sent to us by absent classmates.

"Thank you. The first telegram wishing us good luck is from Cairo, Egypt where Professor CURTIS SAWYER and his assistant ED BERKOWITZ are counting the number of stones in the Cheops pyramid. They are contestants in the annual contest sponsored by the BOCKNICK Boat Lines, which offers as a first prize a dinner date with movie star BARB CASHMAN and her pet panther.

The next telegraam comes from RAYMOND WALTERS in Texas. I hear that Ray is doing pretty well. The other day he was sitting in a rocking chair in his yard and before the chair could rock forward one of the rockers stuck in the ground and up came a gusher.

That completes the telegrams that have arrived so far. Before the dancing starts let's take another look around the tables and see who else is here. Here is the noted contractor, RICHARD CAPRA with his two private secretaries, JUDY CLARK and DOTTY DANFORTH. They helped him put together his first prefabricated highway.

Also here is DANNY MUISE, the engineer who helped build the skyway bridge over the Atlantic Ocean. CLARICE DODD, owner of the West Peabody supersonic Stagecoach Lines seems to be advising him about something in a loud tone. Meanwhile JOAN DLUGOKINSKI is trying to get Clarice to say "yes" to a new hair style.

MARY ANTHONY, lady legislator, seems to be having quite a lively discussion with NATALIE GOULSTON, famed Rocket Ship Racer, who has just arrived on Earth with her co-pilots, RICHARD WIGGIN and GEORGE GERMANO, who are wearing special stratosphere uniforms from the RAUDNA REIN Outfit Shop. NORMA ROSSI, successful stenographer, is taking notes of the conversation for future reference.

There's ELINOR EDELSTEIN, the noted plastic surgeon, who has been widely acclaimed for her successful plastic surgery on "Posie" the star elephant of the BROWN BROS., BONA & BOYCE Circus. Sitting next to Elinor is LAURA GOULD owner of the New York Yankees with two of the coaches, JIM McNEILLY and JIM GERAS.

ANGELA BONFANTI, PRISCILLA BLAZEWICZ and MARY EAGAN have just returned from a world cruise. They all belong to the staff of the Chelsea Naval Hospital and were sent abroad to lecture on the controversial theory of DR. RICHARD MULLARKEY which states that in the future all men will have four hands so that they can play duets by themselves. MARIA PRATA who has just returned from her nursing position in France is comparing methods with FLORENCE HILL another graduate of Peabody High successful in the nursing profession.

PAT ARDINI, PAT KOOSKALIS and LEO LEVESQUE, stars of the popular soap opera, "Our Gal Ma Perkins Faces Life", are discussing the next day's program with their directors BOB GREGORY and JIM COLLINS. From what I hear about the story, Bill, the son of Alice and Dick is in love with Doris, the maid. But Doris is already secretly married to Bill's uncle Harry, and — oh well, never mind. Anyway the program is sponsored by TANKEVITCHES' Tanglefoot Flypaper.

Word is going around that EVA MACHIROS is doing quite well. She started with one pony tail and has built up the biggest pony tail ranch in the country.

"May I please have your attention. Another telegram has just arrived from MARY WALSH. Mary, as you know, is the famous lawyer who is now defending MONA RENAUD who claims custody of the family dog, Harry, in her divorce suit against RONNIE SHEEHAN. She sends regrets from herself and a few members of her jury, CAROLE PROVOST, GLENN ATKINSON, EVANGELIA SIAKALIS, FRANK WENDELL and PRISCILLA

NEWTON. Judge JOHN O'CONNOR and D.A. CON THEOKAS were able to attend this affair during court recess.

Listen! The orchestra is beginning to play "Go Home, Baby" the musical hit of the current season which has sold over two million records up to date. The words were written by BOBBY BLAKE and music by JIM CAULFIELD and RAY KARPINSKI, night janitor of the hotel. It was recorded by the "4 Cuties", a new singing group of GLORIA WRIGHT, ANNA GIALOURIS, FRANNY MANNING, and AUDREY BULLERWELL.

GEORGE TSOUKLARIS and his wife, the former JUDY CONNERS, proprietors of the "Peabody Nut and Candy House" are passing out their newest samples to CATHERINE MURPHY and CARLETON UPTON as the entertainment starts.

Here is KEN MOWBRAY your M. C. for the evening. "Ladies and gentlemen, it is my great pleasure to present to you now, two of the very talented Rockettes LORRAINE VILLA and MARCIA HOULDEN who will do their latest tap dance performed on a football ! !

"But look! HENRY TARDIFF has just broken through the crowd and is trying to get into the act. The folks are clearing a way for him now as he cartwheels back and forth.

In appreciation, the famous business team of RAZEL COHEN & ED MEDEIROS are starting a cheer for Timmy. DOTTY WASELCHUK, owner of "Yorlady's Beauty Salon" joins in too.

Kenny is making a vain attempt to quiet the crowd, but JOSEPH STANKEVITCH, Speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives comes to his rescue, and offers to read the "Who's Who of our Class".

"First on the list is CHRIS PAPOULEAS who has been married the longest.

For the most successful in the field of auto racing, are the GOULD SISTERS, JEAN and JOAN who have just broken the light barrier in Liverpool, England. Judges of the race Sir RICHARD GNESS and Lord ALTON NEWTON both had red faces because the night before they had appeared on MARTIN NOLAN'S T.V. show and made it clear this couldn't be done.

Of course you all know that JEAN GAINLEY represented the United States in the World Olympics and she really made us feel proud of her. Keep up the good work!

"Well, what's n the future? Here to tell you, is our U. S. ambassador to Afghanistan ANGELA REGIS."

"On my most recent visit to Afghanistan, I met LEONTINE PIRES and GRACE KIRLIS who are married to the Aga Khan's brother Trash Kahn. To make up for their absence this evening they have invited us all to visit them at their summer home in Madrid, Spain and their winter home on the Riviera. I hope you will accept their kind invitation."

DOTTY LABELLE still can't get over the happy surprise she received tonight when she saw that her new cosmetic "Beauti-cura" soap was praised in one of the fashion magazines. Not only was it praised, but there was a picture of OLGA KUSHKOWSKI staring up with those eyes of hers and saying, "I always use Beauti-cura". It beautifies!

JEAN GLENN, better known as Aunt Jeannie, on the T.V. show "Aunt Jeannie's Cooking Corner" has really taken note of this evening's meal and she and her assistant JUDY WILKINSON are going to devote their next show entirely to giving these recipes.

Well, it looks like the party is finally breaking up. It's only 6:00 A.M. But I'm sure all of you found this evening exciting. MARGARET RAUCCI, weather forecaster for WMETA-TV has to leave first to send up weather balloons and is taking along BERTHA PARKER, chief meteorologist to look out for low-flying meteors.

Just leaving and stepping into a sleek police cruiser are policewomen JUANITA HENRIQUES and THERESA LaBONTE. We never thought that any of the girls in our class would become crime-fighters, but seeing is believing!

ED GALENUS, author of the new book, "How to Lengthen a Short Circuit" is standing by the door handing out copies to RAYMOND SNELL and BETTE SHELDON of MGM who promise to make it into a movie.

A few seem reluctant to leave. JIM FORD is emphatically telling house detective JOHN KONDRACHOOK that he's positive he left his sister-in-law SANDRA QUINTILIANI in this spot! But John orders him to leave. The dining room must be closed to prepare for breakfast.

Star reporters SHEILA MALONE and RITA HARRIS have decided to stay for breakfast anyway because their editor PETER KOURABACALIS ordered them to report at 7 A. M. at the Peabody Beach wharf. They are going to cover the sailing of the U. S. S. Mermaid and interview the captain, ART ROBERTS and a couple of his crew members THOMAS PERRY and DANNY BURKE.

We could never individually thank all those who helped to make this affair a success. But without the help of SANDRA DOUGLAS and DAISY ATKINSON who graciously volunteered to notify the alumni, we would never have had such a wonderful turn out.

And so ends one of the most enjoyable evenings in 15 years. I know it will be one long remembered. See you all at our 25th reunion!

Class Will

We, the members of the class of 1956 of Peabody High School, being of sound mind do hereby designate this document to be our last will and testament. It is our hope that each heir will benefit by his gift.

To the class of '57 we leave all the fun and work which goes with becoming Seniors.

Ted Bocknek and Ken Johnson have arranged to leave their best golf clubs to Dave Callahan and Billy Emmett, knowing that these boys will put the clubs to good use.

Our "songbird" Betty Anderson has bequeathed her place in all future assemblies to Judy Berry whom she feels will carry on the tradition.

The knowledge that Ernie Trod has acquired in U. S. History is left to Robert Cavanaugh.

Jan Shaub couldn't quite give up her car but finally consented to parting with her chauffer's job so that Eileen Kirane could take this position over.

Eddie Berkowitz has many gifts to leave but decided that all the driving lessons that he received from Mr. Cronin be given to Donna Gesson.

For the assured success of future revues, Lorraine Villa and Marcia Holden are leaving their "dancing Feet" to Adelaide Mello and Nancy Bozek.

"Red" O'Connor wasn't as fortunate as Marilyn in finding a titian head among the Junior Boys. So he is going to keep his red hair for himself.

The wit and humor that Gloria Erlich has exhibited in the past four years is bequeathed to "Petie" Connolly.

Bob Kiley is leaving his ability to obtain as many library permits as he needed to Jan Vernon.

The three "friends" Art Pappathanasi, Charlie Georgoulis, and Chris DeCoulous leave their co-operative spirit to David Michalchuk, Bill Houlden, and Steve Krisko so that P. H. S. may still have a triumverate.

Barb Greehy decided on Lorraine Le Blanc as receiver of the honor of being the Baton Squad Leader.

The consideration that Dot Danforth has been endowed with is bequeathed in part to Ellen Luz for future use in '57.

Ronnie and "Jeep" Brown will all their football trophies to the Matsourani brothers, Steve and George, with the stipulation that future football teams at P. H. S. reach the greatness they deserve.

Finally, we the class of '56 appoint Mary McCarthy, and Priscilla Blazewich ·rix to carry out the provisions of this will.

· witness thereof, we, the class of '56 declare this to be our final will, forsaking al ers, and seal this on the tenth day of June, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hund ed and fifty-six.

In Appreciation

As the curtain is lowered on the pleasant scenes of our high school days, we should like to express in a few simple but sincere words our appreciation and gratitude to those who have been so kind, considerate and helpful to us during four of the happiest years of our lives.

We are truly grateful to the entire faculty of Peabody High School for their patience and their wisdom which have been an inspiration to all of us.

As we leave the stage of so many pleasant memories, we extend our sincere thanks to Principal Arthur J. Barry and Vice-Principal Timothy F. McCarthy for their kind interest and invaluable guidance.

Whatever success we may achieve, whatever accomplishments may be ours, — they will be but a manifestation of the patience, tolerance and perseverance which our faculty and administrators have exemplified.
